Bahrain-Qatar dispute before

DOHA, Feb 17, (Reuter):

World Court

Bahrain and Qatar have taken steps to submit their dispute over a cluster of Gulf islands to the International Court of Justice in the Hague, the Amir of Qatar was quoted as saying today.

Saudi Arabia last December said the two sides had agreed to take the dispute to the Hague and the Amir, Sheikh Khalifa Bin Hamad Al Thani, said that Qatar and Bahrain were committed to Riyadh's proposal and would abide hy the court's decision.

Doha and Bahrain "took actual legal measures" to submit the issue to the International Court, the Amir told the Lebanese magazine Al Hawadeth in an interview to be published today and carried by the official Qatar news agency.

The long-standing dispute erupted in April 26, 1986 when Qatari forces detained 29 people building a radar station on the disputed Fasht Ad-Dibal reef, hut released them 17 days later after Saudi Arabia intervened.

The kingdom has been mediating between the two states to end the dispute and last month hosted a meeting between the foreign ministers of Qatar and Bahrain to discuss the issue.

Sheikh Khalifa said submitting the dispute to the International Court was "the best way" to resolve the issue which "will end completely once a verdict is reached."

Fire damages US embassy in Moscow

MOSCOW, Feh 17, (Reuter): Fire damaged the fifth floor of the US emhassy in Muscow today and 150 staff and visitors were evacuated while Soviet firemen put out the hlaze, an embassy spokesman said.

There were no casualties, and the office area of the huilding was not damaged, embassy spokesman Richard Gilbert said. The cause of the fire was under investigation.

The hlaze began at 2:45 p.m. in a former residential area of the old embassy complex, Gilbert told reporters outside the build-ing on Moscow's inner ring road.

"Fire alarms were sounded. The staff locked up their papers and evacuated the building," he However, some emhassy employees could be seen standing on the snow-covered pavement outside the ninestorey building with files of papers under their arms.

Construction work by US Navy personnel was under way on the floor where the fire began sending flames shooting from a back window across an inner courtyard.

"The cause may have been construction materials, but the cause has not been determined," Gilbert said.

He said the fire was put out after about 45 minutes by some 20 Soviet firemen assisted by US marines assigned to guard the embassy. But smoke continued rising from a back whalow of the emhassy for some time after-

Several red Muscow fire trucks rushed to the scene, but eyewitnesses said there appeared to be a delay after their arrival as clearance was sought from senior diplomats for firemen to enter the huilding.
Gilbert said that for security

Gunman surrenders after killing 7

SUNNYVALE, California, Fcb 17. (UPI): A gunman fired from a silicon valley computer company for sexual harassment went on a shooting spree at the husiness yesterday, killing seven people and wounding five, including a woman who had spurned his advances, police said.

The gunman identified as former employee Richard Farley. 40, surrendered more than five hours after he walked into ESL Inc. and opened fire.

Sunnyvale police patrol commander Alex Michaelis said late yesterday one body was found outside the huilding and six were discovered during a room-byroom search. The two women and five men were shot to death. Two of the victims were found in the stairwell, one downstairs and three upstairs.

"The gunshots were all at the beginning of the situation. Michaelis said.

Farley was armed with two handguns, a shotgun and highpowered rifle and had two handoleers of ammunition strapped across his chest when he walked into the huilding yesterday after-

After the shootings he holed up on the second floor of the ESL huilding with hostages and workers who bad locked themselves in their offices.

Hostage negotiator Ruben Grijalva, who talked 10 Farley for four hours, said that the gunman had cried on the telephone.

Farley told Grijalva he went into ESL intending to "hlow the place up," destroying equipment but not harming any of the employees, but the situation got out of hand. Farley told the negotiator he did not know how many people he had shot.

Sandwich When Grijalva mentioned food, Farley said be was hungry. He surrendered after police offered him sandwich and soft drink, the negotiator said.

Five ESL employees wounded in the shooting were taken from the building by police and were sent to area bospitals. Among the wounded was Laura Black, 26, a woman who had obtained a court order to keep Farley away from ber and apparently was a primary target of the gunman's rage, police said.

Hekmatyar fears rebel-Islamabad conflict

Pakistan warned on Afghan accord

ISLAMABAD, Feb 17, (Reuter): A radical Alghan rebel leader said today it would be an "historic blunder" for Pakistan to sign a UN-sponsored peace accord at Geneva. Gulbuddin Hekmatyar, head of one of the seven Pakistanbased rebel parties, told a news conference that to sign would effectively mean recognising the Soviet-backed Kabul government and would cause conflict between Islamahad and the mujahedeen.

The Kremlin hoped to gain by the accords two things it had failed to win in eight years of fighting - an end to the war and recognition of President Najibullah's government, he

Sudanese rebels block food aid

KHARTOUM, Feb 17, (AP): Prime Minister Sadek El Mahdi has accused southern rebels of "food terrorism," saying that they refused to give safe conduct to a non-governmental organisa-tion offering relief for starving Sudanese in the south.

Answering questions in the Constituent Assembly, the national parliament, El Mahdi said the rebel Sudan People's Liberation Army had insisted that the relief aid be distributed through them. He said the rebels wanted to use the aid "for political reasons" and distribute it among rebel supporters only. El Mahdi accused the SPLA of being a terrorist organisation. and said it was using food as a weapoo against the southern assumed by mothers. Dr Layla Al Dosouki, also from Kuwait University, said that some mothers even allow the maids to take their children to clinics when they are ill. They are given this respoosibility, she said, in spite of the fact that they may be unable to even speak Arabie and could possibly misunderstand instructions regarding medicatioo which should be giveo the sick child.

Breastfeed A sbocking statistic, based on a study conducted in 1986, shows that 560 deaths among children under four years of age were the result of negligence on the part of mothers. Breastfeeding. almost unheard of in Kuwait now, was stressed as an important factor in creating a bond between mother and child. Dr Al Dosouki said the number of mothers breast-feeding their children bad dropped from 90 per cent in 1979 to 20

She said that in addition to the psychological factors influenced by the absence of breastfeeding, health factors are also affected. both for the mother and the ehild. For example, children wbo are oot breastfed do oot develop immunity to many common diseases, she said, adding that mothers who breastfeed their children are less likely to develop breast cancer

Dr Al Dosouki said that mothers who allow their children to be fed by maids are subjecting them to several diseases, especially diarrhoea. Maids are apt to make mistakes in mixing formulas, she added, and to feed the child at irregular intervals.

Dr Ibrahim Al Khalifi, from Kuwait University, said the problem of maids caring for Kuwaiti children has become common family conversation. He emphasised that maids are brought to Kuwait for a purpose, which did not include the responsibility of raising our children.

Heart disease affecting more people

By Jadranka Porter

TODAY, fewer people die of heart disease in Kuwait than in 1981. However, the incidence of cardiovascular complaints is on the increase, and is affecting younger age groups according to statistics compiled by the Kuwait Heart Foundation.

Dr Rashid Al Owaish, the secretary of the Foundation's board, has said that on average there are 80 heart attacks per every 100,000 people. Fifteen per cent of Kuwait's populatioo is believed to suffer from hypertention related to heart disease.

Teenagers involved in break-in

A KUWAITI daily reported that the three boys who receotly attempted to break into the safe at the Hawalli Immigration Department were teenagers.

It was reported that the three boys gained entry to the premises through a window with an air-conditioning unit. When the janitor attempted to stop them, the boys beat him and tied him up.

When the boys were unable to open the safe they fled. The janitor later informed security authorities of the break-in, giving a description of the three which led to their arrest.

DO hotel buffets bore you? Do you face those impressive displays of mezzeh thinking, "Stuff the vine leaves!"? If you feel you can't look another boiled prawn in the eye (even with its thousand island dressing). it's prohably time you gave your palate a holiday. Fortunately in Kuwait you doo't have to travel thousands of miles to try exotic cuisine, as there are so many ethnic restauraots catering for the different oationalities working in the couotry. Recently the number of places serving Fihpino food has increased. One of the longer established of these is the Far East Restaurant, located oo the first floor of the Salhia Building — just off Fahd Al Salem Street and oear the entrance to the Salhia Comby Filipinos chattering away in Tagalog. Large pictures of scenes from the Philippines, cane and shell lampshades and bamboo-patterned curtains all add to the authenticity of the atmosphere. The Far East Restaurant is simply furnished with wooden tables and chairs and the tableware is cheap and cheerful. Up-beat music playing gently in the background creates a light-bearted mood. Doo't be dismayed when you find that the menu is mainly in Tagalog, for the waiter, who has an excellent command of English, will patiently describe every dishfor you, if you ask. In fact the service throughout the meal was excellent.

Kuwait as you sit surrounded

Range

It would be quite possible to eat a simple, filling meal at the Far East for as httle as KD3 per person, as the average price of dishes is KD1.500. However, as we wanted to try a wide range of items oo the menu, we ordered a much more lavish, and coosequently more expensive, meal than you might have in mind; our total bill for a two-course lunch for two comiog to KD12.050, including fruit juices, water and coffee. The specialities of the house are, without a doubt, the excellent seafood and fish dishes, but the menu also offers a raoge of beef, vegetable and chiekeo preparations in addition to a selection of soups, rice and those tasty Filipino noodle disbes. For the unadventurous there is even some American

Of the dishes we ordered the Crabs in Spicy Sauce is to be highly recommended. Eight halves of crahs had been cooked in a thick, hot piquant sauce with whole peppercorns. It's certainly not the dish to eat in front of someone you're trying to impress with your social finesse, and fingerbowls are sadly lacking. The much milder Prawns in Cocoout Sauce made the perfect contrast to the crab dish. Large, sweet jumbo prawns were served in a delicate sauce of coconut milk and fresh ginger with a julienne of carrots and green peppers. Chilli Beef was an odd misnomer for a very subtle dish of shredded beef in a gentle oyster-flavoured sauce. The mixed fried rice was a colourless, rather ordinary dish containing peas, egg and beef

Risk

When adventuring in unfamiliar cuisine one runs the risk of ordering something that demands an acquired taste. This happened to us with the Pinaket na Hipon. A vegetable stew of aubergine, pumpkin okra, onioo and bitter gourd cooked in a fish stock and decorated with a jumbo prawn, it had an extremely sour flavour which I found unpleasant.

Filipino desserts, too, are not for the uninitiated. The Mais con Yelo consisted of a tin of sweetcorn poured with its brine into a parfait glass mixed with milk and topped with tasteless crushed ice. The result was very salty. The Saging na Saba coo Yelo was a sweeter version of the same dish using dried banana pieces instead of sweetcorn. Coffee at the Far East consists of nescafe and creamer in sachets and the fresh orange juice we ordered was very diluted for 500 fils. The Far East Restaurant is well worth a visit for an informal lunch or dinner but I would recommend that you leave out the desserts and drinks for a more economical meal.

THERE was a marvellous report in last Tuesday's Guardian newspaper about the success of a new traffic campaign in Denmark. What the cunning Danes did was to put up cardboard policemen near notorious speeding areas. Motorists instinctively slowed down as soon as they saw the policemen and accidents were cut by over 30 per cent. It gave me a few ideas.

Wby don't they put styrofnam police cars all ainng the Fifth Ring Road? It would cut accidents by a half. Come to think of it I'm pretty sure they've got cardboard clerks in must of the ministries and offices I have to visit. At least judging from the results of my efforts to get things dane, the officials might as well be made of cardboard. After all, who is better to do the paperwork than a paperman?

Problems

Think of the advantages, ministries could stay open twenty-four bours a day, seven days a week, no overtime to worry about, no bolidays for the 'staff.' I'm going to introduce cardboard employees in a big way, start my own employment agency. No mnre trouble with maids comdaining about ill-treatment. Get one of my cardboard ones and you can beat her all day lnng withnut any problems, she's guaranteed never to complain to her Embassy.

I think I'll approach KTV tnn and see if they'd like to use same of my staff for routine jnbs like newsreading. I could easily fix them up with a little

Of course they'd be pretty cheap, I think I'll rent them out for about five dinars a mnnth. Then whenever the Ministry of the Interior get unhappy about illegal residents and so nn I could sell them a job lot so's they could deport thousands of them in one fell swoop. The airlines would be delighted since they could pack them into the bolds and not even bother to get some mare. Next time the police ask to see my papers, they're in for a big surprise! I've already started, in a small way, and if you look closely you will see some of my employees working as models in local shop windows. But this is only the beginning. Once they've got a bit of experience and on-the-job training I'm I think I'll approach KTV too and see if they'd like to use some of my staff for routine jobs like

Yes, the idea really has possibilities. How about telephonists? All over the country companies are spending millions of dinars employing telephonists who never bother to answer their phones. I'll replace them all at a fraction of the price with Mr Keith's Gennine Cardboard Telephone Operators and get the same results for a fraction of the price.

You won't have anymore visa problems for your staff since I'll produce them right here in sunny Sbuwaikh, genuine Kuwaitis every one of them. When they wear out, you simply throw them away and

They'll have to specialise of course. I think I'll appoint quite a lot of them as spokesmen for various institutinns, they should be able to do a much better job than the present bol-ders. For example, the Israelis

I'm looking for really big orders. I think my best bet for mass subscriptions will be from the local football stadiums which are always embarrassingly empty whenever they show those stunningly exciting matches between Abbasiya and Hawalli or wboever. With twenty thousand of my men on their feet and cheering like mad, the whole event will be transforman for Palestinian Rights.

Of course, a lot of them will be applying fur jobs as harises, and with a cardboard guard on dnty your building will always besafe. Indeed, they will be able to do minor repairs and handle complaints much more efficiently than at present. In fact, they are perfect for positions of authority dealing with com-plaints from the public, they will listen to you patiently and with real understanding and then take exactly the same course of action as the present incumbents who are earning a hundred times the salary.

If you are interested in employing one of my superbly trained and totally obedient workers please get in touch My telephonist will be happy to take your order and my large staff of clerks will get it filled in record time. Please state ser age and nationality and any special attributes you may require, such as uniforms, dishdashas, abayas or equipment like cups of tea and newspapers which can be built in to give that really lifelike quality.

One final brilliant idea, I

BY CHARLES GOREN AND OMAR SHARIF ANSWERS TO WEEKLY BRIDGE QUIZ

≜AQJ63 · ♥KQ5 ♦AQ The bidding has proceeded:

South West North East 2 NT Pass • 3 🏚 Pass What action do you take?

A.—Thus far, you have told partner that you have a balanced hand of 22-24 points (nr 21-22, depending on system) and at least four spades. Partner has said that, in that case, he expects your side to be able to make 10 tricks at a spade contract. Your fifth spade does not change that. Pass.

The bidding has proceeded: South West North East 4 🛨 Pass

What action do you take? A.—Partner's jump to game over your demand bid has a very specific meaning. He is telling you that he bas good trumps but no first or second-round control in any side suit. At best, therefore, slam may depend on two of three finesses: at worst, you will have no play. Pass.

Q.3-Neither vulnerable, as South you bold:

♠AQ ♥KJ5 ♦KJ ♠K107642 What is your opening bid?

Q.1-As South, vulnerable, you A.-Basically, you have a balanced 17-point hand with tenaces. Except for your six-card club suit, you would have a perfect one no trump opener. So pretend one of your clubs is a spade, and make that must descriptive bid.

★AK6 ♥KJ872 ♦ KJ643 ♣-Partner opens the hidding with one club. What do you respond? A .- You have a very good hand, but you have no idea, as yet, where the hand is going to be played. Therefore, this is not the hand for a jump shift, which should be made only when you have a self-sustaining suit or support for partner's suit. Respond one beart.

Q.5—Neither vulnerable, as South you hold:

±K105 ♥AKJ983 ♦— ±K873 The bidding has proceeded: North East South · West 1 🛊 Pass

What do you bid now? A .- This is a very close decision. The trouble with a jump to three beats is that partner might pass on many hands where four spades is the right contract; or, you might miss a club slam when partner simply raises to four bearts. All in all, we would take our chances with a simple two-club rebid, to see how partner reacts.

Q.6-As South, vulnerable, you hold;

What action do you take? A.—With such a solid no trump, you don't want to sell out to two hearts even though partner couldn't act voluntarily. Double. Sitting under the bid, that's for takeout. Whatever partner does will probably be right.

Turkey and Iran agree to boost trade relations

ANKARA, Turkey, Feb 17. (AP): Foreign ministers Mesut Yilmaz of Turkey and Ali Akbar Velayati nf Iran yesterday discussed ways to improve bilateral trade relations, a Turkish official

The volume of trade between the two countries has declined steadily over the past two years from $2.9 hillion in 1985 to $1.4 billion last year.

The government official, who requested aonoymity, said Velayati asked Turkey to fulfil its pledge to import $80 million worth of products other than oil. Last year, Turkey imported only $8 million worth of products other than oil.

Interest

Velayati also expressed interest in building a joint oil pipeline hut there were still some financial problems to be worked out, the official added. He said the issue would be discussed agaio during Premier Turgut Ozal's visit to Tehran oo Feh 28.

The proposed pipeline would carry crude from the Ahwaz oil fields in soothwestern Iran to a Turkish terminal at Dortyol at the eastern tip of Turkey's Mediterranean coast.

Ozal's visit will follow a joint economic commission meeting between the two countries that is scheduled to begin io Tehran oo Feh 24.

Stability emerges in US economy

WASHINGTON, Feb 17, (AP): Federal Reserve Board Chairman Alan Greenspan said today that financial conditions that influence interest rates 'seem to be in relative balance" in the United States.

Greenspan's comments, made in a speech to the Bretton Woods committee, appeared to suggest that nn majnr action by the Federal Reserve — the US cen-tral bank — oo US interest rates is imminent.

Prospects

There has been speculation in recent days that the natioo's central bank might be on the verge of easing credit through a lowering of its discount rate, the rate it charges banks and other financial institutions for direct loans.

Asked about interest rates, Greenspan said that "evidence of the most recent past" was in the direction of "emerging stability" in the economy of the United

World Business Summary

UAE oil exports totalled $4b in first half of 1987

ABU DHABI, Feb 17, (Opecna): The UAE oil exports during the first half of 1987 reached $4.08 billion against 3.26 billion over the same period a year earlier. According to a Central Bank bulletin here, gas exports increased in value to $0.68 billion against 0.59 billion over the same period, recording a 13.6 per cent increase. The report said the country's non-oil exports rose by 44.7 per cent in value during the period, while re-exports went up to $1.49 billion from 1.03 billion a year earlier. Imports rose 6.6 per cent reaching $3.54 billion from 3.32 billion, the bank said, adding that indicators pointed to an improvement in the overall performance of the country's economy.

The country recorded a trade surplus of $2.72 billion over the same period, the report noted.

Meanwhile, Oil Minister Mana Said Al Otciba said today that "I am convinced that $18 is a reasonable level of pricing for consumers and producers," he told a meeting of Japanese oil industry officials.

"We are allowing our production to drop below the allocated quota for us. Whoever feels our oil is too expensive for him, can find cheaper oil elsewhere," he said.

The market price of oil today was about $16 per barrel.

Oteiba said he was determined to squash rumours the UAE would offer its customers a discount to the price agreed by the Organisation of Petroleum Exporting Countries (Opec).

Indonesia to boost oil refining capacity

JAKARTA, Feb 17, (Reuter): Indonesia's state-owned Pertamina Oil Company announced today plans to build a $700 million oil refinery to supply oil products to Asia. Company president director Abdul Rachmaa Ramly told parliament the refinery would be a British-designed plant, with a capacity of 100,000 barrels of refined products a day. Ramly said the plant would be built in East Java and produce products mainly for export. Industry sources said negotiations were taking place with British Petroleum, and financing would be from the British and Japanese sources.

Industry sources said the refinery would swell the glut in world refining capacity and could hart South-East Asia's refining centre of Singapore. "It's being built with an eye to when oil prices recover, possibly in a few years," said one oil industry executive. So far indonesia's refining capacity has been mainly used to supply the domestic market. The new plant is part of a trend by members of the Organisation of Petroleum Exporting Countries (Opec) to expand export revenues by moving further into the refining end of the business. The sources said British Petroleum was discussing formation of a consortium with Japan's Mitsui and Mitsubishi companies.

Pertamina's processing director Jopie Oekon told reporters that Pertamina had completed a feasibility study and construction work would start soon. He did not elaborate.

The project would be financed by export credits and other kinds of soft loans from Britain and Japan, as well as commercial credits. The foreign contractors would recover costs by selling shares of the oil, with Japan as the likeliest market, industry sources said. Indonesia's present total refining capacity is 905,000 barrels a day, with an estimated actual thrupot of

U.K. STOCKS FIRM IN LATE, SPARSE TRADE LONDON, FEB 17 - SHARE PRICES CONTINUED FIRM IN LATE TRADING BUT VOLUME WAS STILL AT THE RECENT LOW LEVELS, DEALERS SAID. AT 1530 GMT, THE FTSE 100 WAS UP 13.9 POINTS AT 1.748.S AFTER A RALLY ON WALL STREET YESTERDAY AND ON HOPES OF TAX CUTS IN THE MARCH 15 U.K. BUDGET. BUT DEALERS SAID MUCH OF THE ADVANCE REFLECTED TACTICAL MOVES BY MARKET MAKERS IN A MARKET

WHICH WAS STILL TRYING TO FIND A LEVEL. "DESPITE TODAY'S MARK UP, . I REALLY CAN'T SEE THIS MARKET GOING ANYWHERE IN THE HEAR TERM," ONE DEALER SAID. HE NOTED THAT BUSINESS WAS STILL MAINLY CONFINED TO PORTFOLIO MOVEMENT AND SWITCHING OPERATIONS, WITH LITTLE NEW INVESTMENT GOING ON.

THE FIRMER TREND WAS AIDED BY HOPES THAT FORD WORKERS WILL ON THURSDAY APPROVE TUESDAY'S DEAL BY FORD U.K. AND UNIOM LEADERS TO END THE STRIKE. WHILE THERE IS RELIEF A LONG-TERM FORD STRIKE MAY BE AVERTED, FEARS EXIST THAT A RUSH OF WAGE CLAIMS INSPIRED BY THE FORD DISPUTE COULD TRIGGER INFLATION.

ONE DEALER SAID, REFERRING TO THE START OF THE "WINTER OF DISCONTENT' IN 1979, "FORD STARTED THE INDUSTRIAL UNREST BALL ROLLING ABOUT 10 YEARS AGO, AND GIVEN THE FACT THAT THE UNIONS APPEAR TO HAVE WON (HOW), IT COULD WELL HEAN AN ESCALATION OF UNREST ELSEWHERE, ADDING IT CAST UNCERTAINTY OVER INTEREST RATE PROSPECTS IN THE MEDIUM TERM.

London Gold

LONDON, FEB 17 - GOLD BULLION REMAINED QUIET TOWARDS THE CLOSE, WITH PRICES HOLDING JUST BELOW EARLY AFTERNOON HIGHS, AND THE METAL CLOSED AT 446.30/446.BO OLRS AN OUNCE.

THIS WAS ABOVE OPENING AND PREVIOUS CLOSING LEVELS OF 443.90/444.40 AND 445.50/445.50 DLRS RESPECTIVELY.

DEALERS SAID TRADING WAS QUIET THROUGHOUT THE DAY, WITH THE MARKET NOW SETTLING INTO A PATTERN OF CONSOLIDATION FOLLOWING THE RECEHT SUBSTANTIAL SELL-OFF. PRICES ARE HOLDING ABOVE 442 DLRS BUT ARE MAKING LITTLE UPSIDE HEADWAY, WITH 447 DLRS PROVING AN AREA OF STIFF RESISTANCE, THEY ADDED.

London Money Market

LONDON, FEB 17 - RATES ENDED STEADY BUT CONDITIONS WERE VERVOUS AS FORECASTS OF JANUARY BANK LENDING WERE RAISED FOLLOWING YESTERDAY'S SURPRISINGLY HIGH PUBLIC SECTOR REPAYMENT PUBLIC SECTOR BORROWING REQUIREMENT (PS&R) DATA YESTERDAY SHOWED A NET REPAYMENT OF 6.3 SILLION STG IN JANUARY. THIS MIGHT HAVE BEEN EXPECYED TO AID STERLING MARKETS BUT THERE ARE WORRIES THAT HIGH CORPORATE TAX PAYMENTS WERE MADE WITH BANK BORROWINGS, WHICH WOULD INFLATE TOMORROW'S LENDING FIGURE, DEALERS SAID.

EVEN IF THIS PROVED TO BE A TEMPORARY ASERRATION, THE MARKET MIGHT SEE A FIGURE ABOVE DECEMBER'S 4.9 SILLION STG AS A SIGNAL TO PUSH RATES HIGHER, THEY SAID.

KD deposit rates firm KUWAITI dinar deposil rates firmed today as the Central Bank conlinued to horrow three-month funds, draining liquidity. Dealers said there was little activity except in the three-month, which the Central Bank took at 4-5/8 per cent from 4-7/16 per ceni on Tuesday.

It again offered to buy treasury bills on the secondary market but there were few takers, they added.

Overnight was offered at one per cent but tomorrow-next, at one per cent oo Tuesday, shot up to 6-1/2, 5-1/2 per cent while spoi-nexi reached six, five per

Funds

One and three-month funds were 3/8 per cent higher at 4-13/ 16. 9/16 per cent and five, 4-5/8 per cent, respectively.

Three-month dealt at 4-13/16 per ceoi.

Six-month and one-year were quiet at 5-1/4, 4-3/4 per cent and 5-3/8, 4-7/8 per cent, respectively.

The Central Bank dinar deposit rate was firmer at 0.27709/19 to the dollar from 0.27731/41 oo Tuesday. Commercial banks quoted spoi raies of 0.27712/19.

Saudi riyal interbank deposits continued to firm in a tight market, with sentiment remaining nervous amid uncertainly over a forthcoming government bond issue.

Dealers said deposits edged up in response to higher dollar interest rates and lack of liquidity, with trade focussing on one. Iwo and three-month funds as banks closed positions.

"Nn-nne is willing to lend deposits because of fears of how funding for the bonds will affect the market," one dealer said.

Jumped

"It's really a hack-to-hack market and this state of affairs will probably continue until March, when the programme is announced." One-month funds jumped to 7-

7/8. 5/16 per cent from 7-1/8. seven on Tuesday, then fell back to 7-1/4, 1/8 per cent. Three- and six months edged up 1/16 point to 7-3/8, 1/4 per cent and 7-7/16, 5/ 16 per cent respectively. One-year was steady 81 7-5/8, 9/16 per

Tomorrow-nexi deposits traded as high as nine, 8-1/2 per cent in response to the shortage of day-to-day funds. One-week was quoted 1/4 point higher at 7-1/2, seven per cent.

The spot riyal eased to 3.7508/ I I to the dollar but this reflected a split value date ahead of the Gulf Friday weekend.

Sudan appeals for 40 years to pay foreign

KHARTOUM. (Reuter): Sudan, crippled by drought and war, appealed today to be allowed 40 years to repay its foreign dehts of about $12 billion.

Finance Minister Beshir Omar told a news conference Sudan wanted foreign creditors to freeze interest rates at their current level and grant a grace period of 15 years inflowed by a 25-year repayment schedule.

He also said major Western aid donors had pledged $227.6 million in balance-of-payments support as a result of a meeting of a consultative group hosted by the World Bank in Paris last December.

Donors

He did not identify the donors hut officials said they included Japan, the United States and several Western European coun-

He said the money would be used to meet a shortfall of $207 million in the halance of payments in the second half of the financial year ending on June 30. The rest would be spent on basic commodities such as

The consultative group would meel again in Paris during the third week of May to discuss how Sudan could service its foreign deht and settle arrears of about $700 million to the International Mooetary Fuod (IMF).

Recovery

He said the Paris meeting would also discuss the financing of projects in a four-year economic recovery plan supported by the IMF and World Bank.

Sudan, Africa's largest country hy area with a population of 23 million people, devalued its currency by 44 per cent four mooths ago and hiked petrol and sugar prices as part of an agreement with the IMF.

The IMF accord sparked hloody protests when it drove up consumer prices and the value of the dollar.

Sudan, supposed to pay nearly $1 hillion a year in principal and interest, has not been able to meet the payments fully since the early 1980s. The annual amount is about double its export earnings.

UK trade team for Kuwait

A BRITISH trade mission arrives in Kuwait tomorrow, and will be staying at the Sheraton Hotel until February 22. The mission is being organised by the Kent and Sussex Exporters'

Fifteen British companies are participating in this trade mission. Some have visited Kuwait

Many of the companies are involved in the industrial sector: making corrosion control systems, electrical equipment, protective clothing, oil industry supplies, automobile parts, and fire fighting equipment.

The consumer goods sector is also well-represented: leather goods, furniture, blankets, and promotional items are amongst the products.

The services or "invisible" sector is playing an increasing role in British trade: the mission reflects this with representatives from an aircraft and motor engineering college, an Arab/Islamic art consultant, an interior design expert, and a transportation/sourcing

The last product represented is difficult to classify, but is certainly not "invisible" — bag-pipes, whose representative is Sir Patrick Grant.

Further details are available from the British Embassy Commereial Section Telephone 2439220/1/2/4.

UK shares firm as dollar ends steady Societe Generale shares soar

LONDON, Feb 17, (Reuter): London shares firmed and most European bourses ended higher today, but trading was light and investors seemed unwilling to put much money in any financial markets, dealers said.

The dollar held steady, to close at 1.7060 West German marks and 130.25 yen. It traded at $1.7485 to the pound sterling. Gold was fixed in London at $445.60 an ounce, up 60 cents.

Investors

London's FTSE 100-sbare index rose 13.5 points to 1,748.1. but dealers said much of the gain was due to investors switching shares in their portfolios, with little new buying going on.

Yet one presumed candidate. Albert Frere of the financial group Bruxelles Lambert, has denied he was a candidate.

Courage "I am really not interested to succeed Leysen, whose courage I admire," he said. . Economie Affairs Minister Phillipe Maystadt said on the weekend "vital sectors" of the economy which are controlled by Societe Generale, would still be subject to a government veto. whoever has a majority in the company. "Above and beyond all the financial games, we must return to the essential point for Belgian control," said Maystadt. In recent weeks, trading off the Brussels exchange often dwarfed official trading with anonymous buyers paying premium rates for Societe Generale shares. Last Thursday, the unofficial sbare price rose as high as 5.300 francs ($151.42).

Traders said it was hard to say who bought Societe Generale sahres on the market on Monday but said any of a number of Belgian or French companies may have sought to boost their stakes.

US housing starts drop and industrial output up

WASHINGTON, Feb 17, (Reuter): US housing starts in January fell to the lowest level in more than five years, but the industrial sector of the economy continued to expand, the government said today.

Housing starts fell 1.9 per cent last month to an annual rate of 1.377 million units, the lowest. level since December 1982. according to the Commerce

Department. The fall, which followed a steep 15.5 per cent drop in December, confounded economists' expectations of a modest rebound to about 1.45 million. Industrial production, meanwhile, rose 0.2 per cent in January after growing by 0.4 per cent in December and November, the Federal Reserve Board said. Forecasts

The increase was in line with the forecasts of most economists. who said the industrial sector is. riding the crest of an' export boom caused by the cheap dollar. Taken together, today's data provided evidence that the longawaited shift in the composition of economic growth away from domestie consumption and toward exports, needed to reduce America's buge trade deficit, is now well under way, economists

If the transformation continued at the current pace, economists said the economy would probably avoid a recession this election year. But they said clouds were gathering over the housing industry.

Experts

Most building experts had dismissed December's decline in housing starts, the steepest monthly fall in three years, as an aberration rather than the harbinger of a depression in the housing industry.

But today's report brought more gloomy news.

1.361.000.

Building permits, a barometer of future building activity, fell 8.2 per cent last month to an annual rate of 1.25 million after a 7.4 per cent decline in December to

Saudis realised $2b from non-oil exports

DAMMAM, Feb 17. (Opecna): Saudi Arabia realised $2.18 billion last year from its non-oil exports, Commerce Minister for Sulaiman Al Sulaim said here

Addressing the opening session of the Saudi Arabian export development symposium, he noted that increasing imporance was being given by the government to the commercial sector in order to expand the country's economic base as part of a drive to lessen dependence on oil.

The meeting is organised by the eastern province's Chamber of Commerce in ecoperation with the Saudi Export Development Centre and the Saudi Chamber of Commerce and Industry. Participants at the meeting, comprising businessmen and government officials, will discuss the country's export drive, including the trade financing programme of the Islamic Development Bank and the role of the Saudi National Committee for Trade Financing.

Dear Junior Readers.

Have you ever heard your teacher say that you have a "good attitude" toward school? Or maybe you have heard someone say that a person

Attitude has to do with the way we feel and think about situations and determines how we act. There is always more than one way to look at something and we focus on the good or the bad things depending on

When you have a positive attitude toward school, you approach your lessons confidently and enthusiastically. With this attitude you are eager to try and learn the things the teacher presents.

You can develop a positive attitude toward school, your teachers and classmates by thinking about the good things that happen in school and the things you like about your teachers and friends.

When you go to school try to think of the good things about school and you will be surprised at how much happier your day is.

Between my teeth the nuts must stick. Criek! Crack! Crick! Crack!

Pull down the plait behind my back, Crack! Crick! Crack! Crick! And that, you'll find, will do the trick.'

They did just as he told them, and they laughed each time they took hold of the little man by his long stiff plait, heard the sharp ing out of his mouth. Soon all the nuts were cracked and the little man sang.

The nutcracker grew angry, and sang: 'Did we not agree,

That some were for me? If you eat them instead, I'll bite off your head!"

The wicked boy laughed at this. 'Bite off my bead?' he said. 'You had better be going, or I'll give you a crack with my stick!' And he threatened the nutcracker with the stick he had been using to knock the hazel nuts down. The nutcracker turned purple with rage. He reached behind him and lifted up his own long stiff plait crick! crack! The nutcracker's teeth snapped together, and the wicked-boy's head was gone.

That is the story of the first nutcracker. His children and his grandchildren will do the same to your fingers, if you don't take per hour, at what time did Wendy arrive back in New Orleans?

• The riverboat that Wendy was on arrived back at the Canal Street dock in New Orleans at 4:32 p.m.

The distance that the riverboat travelled along the Mississippi River, when the bayou tour began, was 10 miles. The distance that the boat travelled along the Algiers Route was 7 miles. Therefore, by the time the riverboat had reached Hero Cutoff, it had already gone 10 miles + 7miles, or 17 miles.

The riverboat then travelled the 14 miles along the Bayou Barataria, turned around, and immediately returned the 14-mile distance to Hero Cutoff. Thus, the total distance that the riverboat travelled along the Bayous Barataria was 14 miles + 14 or 28 miles. Therefore, when the riverboat entered the Harvey Canal, it had already gone 17 miles +28 miles =45 miles.

The distance that the riverboat travelled along the Harvey Canal was 3 miles. It then turned back onto the Mississippi River and travelled the final 4 miles to the Canal Street dock in New Orleans. Therefore, the total distance of the bayou tour was 45 miles + 3 miles + 4 miles

The riverboat travelled at an average speed of 10 miles per hour. Since Time = Distance divided by Rate, the boat's travelling time was = 52 miles ÷ 10 miles per hour = 5 hours and 12 minutes.

The riverboat also spent 10 minutes in the Algiers Lock, and 10 minutes + 10 minutes in the Harvey Lock. Thus, the total time that it spent in the two locks was 10 minutes + 10 minutes or 20 minutes. Now add the 20 minutes that the riverboat spent in the two locks to the 5 hours and 12 minutes that it took for it to travel the 52 miles of the tour. 5 hours and 12 minutes +20 minutes =5 hours and 32 minutes. Thus, the riverboat returned to the Canal Street dock 5 hours and 32 minutes after it had departed.

The bayou tour began at 11 a.m. 11 a.m. +5 hours and 32 minutes = 4:32 P.M.

Cut and uncut

The illusion: A length of string is threaded through a soda straw until the straw is in the centre of the string. The straw is then doubled over and cut in half. However, when the string is pulled out, it's been restored, and is none the worse for wear

it bolts home

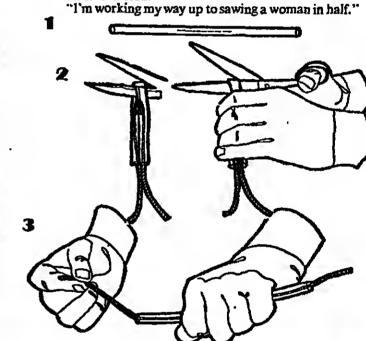

for the moon.

The preparation: Ahead of time, put a two-incb slit alone the straw at the centre with a razor blade (1). Be sure to handle the straw by the ends so that the slit stays closed and unnoticed. You will need a length of thin kite or package string at . least fifteen inches long.

The trick:

Openly push the string through the straw until there is string hanging out each end. Bend the straw in balf so that the slit is to the inside of the fold. Grip the straw in the left fist and pull on the two ends of the string with your right hand. This will pull the string out of the centre of the straw and through the slit so it is an inch below the fold. Pick up the scissors, put the lower blade through the fold of the straw, but above the string, and cut (2). Take the lower ends of the straw in the right fingers and pull the string and straw down into the left fist until they stick out the bottom. Lift one end up all the way between your thumb and index finger so you have an end of straw sticking out each side of your left fist (3). Wave the scissors over your left hand and pull out the string to show it "restored."

Spreading seeds

POPPY SEEDS are very small. They are scattered from little holes as the fruit stem sways in the wind. Some fruits split open and the seeds fly out. The violet fruit splits into three parts and the seeds are thrown

The yellow flowers of gorse and broom make a fruit called a pod. The white flowers of the pea plant also produce pods. When it dries, the ripe pod splits open with a loud 'pop'. The seeds are shot out of split pod. They may travel several metres.

The large fruits of the water hily float away on the water. When they settle in the mud, the seeds may grow into new water lily

Math puzzles

HAVE you always been a little bit afraid of math problems or puzzles? Has a problem ever seemed so difficult that you didn't want to spend any time trying to solve it? Many people feel this way. But they don't have to. Solving math puzzles can be fun.

Try these math puzzles and you may find that you will learn so-many new ways of solving math problems that your skill as well as your enjoyment of math has increased.

 When Wendy visited New Orleans, Louisiana, she went on a bayou tour on a riverboat. The riverboat left the Canal Street dock in New Orleans at 11:00 am. It cruised 10 miles down the Mississippi River, until it came to an intracoastal waterway known as the Algiers Route. The riverboat turned into the Algiers Route. The level of the water in the Algiers Route is lower than the level of the water in the Mississippi River. Therefore, the riverboat had to enter the Algiers Lock, to be lowered to the waterway's water level. The riverboat entered the lock, and the gate closed behind it. The lock gate in front of the riverboat was already closed. In 10 minutes, the level of the water in the lock had been lowered to the level of that in the Algiers Route. The gate at the front of the lock opened, and the riverboat glided out into the waterway. The riverboat cruised 7 miles along the Algiers Route until it came to Hero Cutoff. At Hero Cutoff, it turned into a canal known as the Bayou Barataria. There Wendy saw fishermen painting their boats and drying their nets. On either side of the canal there were moss-covered oaks and magnolia trees, as well as cypress, palmettos, and willows.

The riverboat glided 14 miles along the Bayou Barataria, through the bayous where the Pirate Jean Lasitte and his buccancers had once lived, until it came to an old Indian burial ground. One side of the burial ground was bordered by the canal. The rest of it was surrounded by a dense forest. The Indians' graves all lay at the foot of a gigantic earth mound. An oak tree that was hundreds of years old grew on top of the mound. At this point in the canal, the riverboat turned around and immediately began its return trip to New Orleans.

The river boat eruised back along the Bayou Barataria, to Hero Cutoff. Here, it turned into the Harvey Canal, a 3-mile waterway that leads back to the Mississippi River. The level of the water in the Harvey Canal of lower than the level of the water in the Mississippi River. Therefore, after traveling the length of the Harvey Canal, the river-

Zurbriggen on way to second gold medal

MOUNT ALLAN, Alberta, Feb. 17, (AP): Switzerland's Pirmin Zurbriggen took a major step toward his second Olympic gold medal yesterday by winning the downhill portion of the men's combined by nearly a half-

Results of the downhill will be coupled with those of a slalom today to determine e combined champion.

The combined is returning to the Winter Olympics after a 40-year absence. Since 1982 the combined, with separate downhill and slalom races, has been contested in the World Alpine Championships.

Timed Zurhriggen, who overtook teammate Peter Mueller to win the regular men's downhill on Monday, was timed in I minute. 46.90 seconds in the combined race. It was held on the same course as Monday's race, but was shortened by moving the start down the hill by ahout 200 metres. Franck Piccard of France, the hronze medalist in the regular downhill, was second in 1:47.38, and Felix Belczyk of Canada was third in 1:48.24.

Three Austrians and a West German appear to have the only shots at denying Zurhriggen another gold medal. Hubert Strok was fifth in the downhill, Guenther Mader was 11th and Bernhard Gstrein was 15th. The three Austrians all are strong in slalom, which is Zurbriggen's weakest event.

West Germany's Merkus Wasmeier, a solid all-around skier but e disappointment in sialom so far this season, stood eighth after the downhill. "I didn't lose my concentration after yesterday's victory," Zurbriggen said at the finish line. Admit But he did admit to problems at the start of his run.

"My line was too straight through the gates. That's why I entered the first curve too low. Myleft knee banged into my chin and burt my front tooth. I also hurt my finger on my left hand when it hit the snow."

Asked about his prospects in the slalom, an event in which he hasn't won in two seasons, he said, "slalom is very hard for me. There are a lot of guys in the combined who are specialists in slalom." Asked bow much slalom training he has done, he said, "at the

Canada and Finland win in hockey

Poland tie with Sweden to stay in contention

CALGARY, Alberta, Feb 17, (AP): Some coaches preach that winning is everything. But that wasn't the case with Leszek Leiczyk, at least not when his lightly considered Polish Olympic hockey team was facing high-fly-

On paper, yesterday's "B" pool matchup in the 16-day tournament looked like a mismatch. The eighth-seeded Poles had looked good but failed to score in losing a tight first-round game to Canada, while world champion Sweden, the No.1 seed, routed

France 13-2. But Poland relied heavily on its strong, hard-checking defence to tie Sweden 1-1 and stay in contention for a possible spot in the medal round.

"We achieved our plan to tie the game, which is a very hard plan," Lejczyk said. "When you play for a tie, it's harder than to play for a win.

The only goals in the game came 43 seconds apart in the second period. Sweden's Anders Elderbrink scored on a power play before Jaroslaw Morewiecki tied the game for good.

Loss Swedish defenceman Peter Andersson was at a loss to explain the tie.

"It's tough when you don't score," he said. "It's tough when they play so defensively and we can't get ahead of them. They had to play that way. If they try to play offensive hockey, they re going to lose by eight or nine

Fourth-seeded Canada struggled again before getting three goals in the third period to break a 1-1 tie and put away the upstart No.9 Swiss, who earlier knocked off No.5 Finland. Gord Sherven's rebound goal with 15:14 to play snapped a 1-1 tie and spoiled an excellent game by Swiss goalie Richard Bucher. Ken Yaremchuk and Marc Habscheid then found the net for Canada before Switzerland's Joerg Erberle closed out the scor-

"They had a very hot goaltender," Canada coach Dave King said. "He played very well for a long time in the hockey game. It seemed like he would he the key factor.

But Sean Burke, Canada's goalie, also made a half-dozen acrobatic saves, demonstrating why he is considered one of the best young goalies in the world. Canada lost the services of defenceman Tony Stiles when he suffered a concussion in a firstperiod collision with Swiss forward Peter Jaks.

Fifth-seeded Finland, rehounding from its first-round loss. scored four times in each of the first two periods to rip No.12 France, which bas been outscored 23-3 in two games.

Reijo Mikkolainen scored two of his three goals in the firstperiod spree, the first just 33 seconds into the game, Erkki Lehtonen added one goal and four assists.

Finnish goalie Jarmo Myllys allowed only Steven Woodhurn's third-period goal.

In "B" pool action today, the second-seeded Soviets face the No.7 Americans, No.6 West Germany plays No.11 Austria, and No.3 Czechoslovakia takes on No. 10 Norway.

The Soviets and West Germans are 2-0; the United States and Czecboslovakia are 1-1. Norway and Austria are 0-2.

The top three teams from each pool advance to the medal round.

Soviets clinch gold in pairs figure skating

CALGARY, Alberta, Feh 17, (AP): Two-time world champions Ekatarina Gordeeva and Sergei Grinkov of the Soviet Union won the gold medal in pairs figure skating last night with a mistake-free hut cautious routine.

Teammates Elena Valova and Oleg Vasiliev, the defending Olympic champions, won the silver, giving the Soviet Union a total of seven medals, including three gold, in the first three full days of competition.

Dominated The Soviets have dominated pairs figure skating since the early 1960s, claiming 19 of the past 25 world titles. They have won the Olympic title every year since 1964.

Jill Watson and Peter Oppegard took the hronze for the United States, its first medal of the Winter Games.

Gordeeva, a dainty 16-yearold schoolgirl who has entranced crowds throughout the world the last two years, and Grinkov clearly were the class of the competition. Their jumps, lifts and spins were perfect, and the sellout crowd gave them a thunderous standing ovation at the end of the 4/1-2 minute programme.

Gordeeva and Grinkov. 20. were first with all nine judges in Sunday's short and yesterday's long programmes.

Skating last night to music ranging from Mendelssohn to Mozart, they received three 5.8s and six 5.9s of a possible 6.00 from the ninejudges for technical merit and one 5.8 and eight 5.9s for presentation.

Valova, sidelined much of the past year with an ankle injury, and Vasiliev finished second with every judge. Vasiliev touched down on side-hy-side triple toe loops, but the rest of their programme was clean. Watson and Oppegard might have moved up to second with a stronger freestyle performance. But Watson fell on her double axel jump and did only a single flip while Oppegard did the plan-ned double flip late in the programme. They also skated
